Enhanced RV Investment Protection Options

Total Loss Replacement

In the event of a covered total loss, your RV will be replaced with a brand new RV of like-quality regardless of increased cost.

Purchase Price Guarantee

Reimburses you for the original purchase price after a covered total loss.

Agreed Value Settlement

The insurance company and you "agree" on the amount that will be reimbursed after a covered total loss.

Roadside Assistance & Towing Options

Heavy Duty Service

Transports your RV to the nearest licensed RV repair facility.

Sign and Drive

You will not incur out of pocket expenses on site, just sign the receipt!

Lifestyle Options

Full Timers Insurance

Provides homeowner-like liability insurance when you use your RV as your primary residence.

Campsite / Premises Liability

In the event a visitor is injured at your campsite, or a neighbor's property is damaged, you are covered up to the specified policy limits.

Personal Belongings

Coverage can be provided for non-permanent items that you pack up in your RV when going camping. No need to file a claim on your homeowners policy!

Full Timers' Stored Belongings

Ensures your valuables stored somewhere other than the RV are covered in the event of damage, theft, or vandalism.

Other Great RV Coverage Options

Full Glass Coverage

Glass claims can exceed $2,500, and this coverage provides a separate, lower deductible for glass-only claims.

Awning and A/C Replacement

Awnings, air conditioners, and other roof components are covered when physically damaged. These are not typically included by most insurance companies.

Adjacent Structures

If needed, coverage can be provided for adjacent structures. This is especially helpful for storage carports!

Towing a Vehicle?

Coverage for your utility trailer or tow dolly is often automatically included up to $2,500. Increased limits are available too!

Emergency Expenses

You will be reimbursed for hotel costs and other associated expenses if the RV becomes uninhabitable on a trip.

Diminishing Deductibles

Your deductible will be reduced each consecutive year you are claim free!
